Dedication

As the years go on we will always remember the interest, dedication, and hard work that this faculty member has devoted in order to guide us on our way to success in future years. As an expression of our appreciation we, the Class of 1965, hereby dedicate this, the 1965 POWOW, to Mr. Roland H. Woodwell.

ADMINISTRATION

To the Class of 1965 I offer you my sincere congratulations upon reaching this milestone in your quest for knowledge. For many of you this is but the beginning and your formal education will continue for years to come. For others this is the end of that formal training. To all of you I say never cease your quest for knowledge but continue to observe and learn throughout your lives. Remember that from knowledge comes understanding and through understanding we open the door for a better, richer life.

Judson R. Merrill

To the Class of 1965:

Congratulations to each member of the graduating class for the successful completion of your high school education. Your accomplishments in high school have been many. It's my hope that you will carry your high ideals to the communities in which you will live, continue your interest in education, and have a happy and successful future.

Carleton D. Skillings

CLASS SONG

Andrea St. Germain

Kenneth Popp

We're leaving Amesbury High School
With memories in each heart;
We'll roam on separate pathways,
Saddened that we must part.

These four years brought us pleasure;
They also brought us pain:
Our school in flames before us,
Our nation's leader slain.

Remembering the friendships
Of pals and teachers too;
Toward goals that they have shown us
We'll strive with motive true.

We leave with faith and courage
To work in His great land,
A world of space and science,
Beneath God's helping hand.

June, 1985

Dear Jackie,

Here I am in Professor Peabody's laboratory. We are now ready to find out what our old classmates are doing. After twenty long years of working on his secret project, Wayne has finally finished his televiewer machine.

He turns the switch and we are now focused on the new Amesbury High School, just completed this last year. Allen Adams, principal, is leading a discussion on the possibility of having a three-hour school day. David Doughty, disciplinarian, is nodding his assent. Coaches Stan Upson, Bill Barrett, Dick Dwyer, and Ronnie Currier are all for the idea which would allow more time for their sports. Opposed to the idea are Patricia Zelski, English teacher, Jackie Bean and Andrea St. Germain, math teachers, and Johnina Genova and Paula Sable, history teachers; they claim there should be more time for school work than for sports -- to be sure.

Moving on to the cafeteria we find that Mary Dickson and J. D. Whitmore have just burned the frog legs for today's lunch, so Gary Blake and Bobby Allsopp are now preparing an old favorite, peanut butter and jelly sandwiches.

Driving through the cafeteria are David Flett and Sharon Cahill, present drivers' education instructors.

Wayne now turns the location dial and tunes in on the newly constructed James Blood Hospital in Linda Rock, Arkansas. Chief of staff, Ronald Miller and head nurse Cynthia Kincaid are conducting town officials Ronald Bastien, Paula Lizotte, Linda Dudley and Arnold Regis on a tour of the building. Newspaperwoman Linda Lizotte is on hand doing a write-up for "Poor Richard Lapierre's Almanac," edited by Carol Bartlett. In Room 13 Paul Davis is trying to convince nurses Beryl Hellen, Sandy Morril and Marguerite Parkman that he has caught Joseph Batal's ulcers.

What's this? A special announcement has just come over the intercom that Doctor George Rallis is going to remove Jeannie Schissel's athletes feet. Much to our surprise on their way out the back door nurses Anne Marie Belanger and Janet Curran who were to assist Doctor Rallis. I think it's time we left too.

Where in the world are we now? Mr. Peabody has just informed us that he thought we'd like to see what's happening in the Peace Corps in Tangibar. This is the Peace Corps?! All we can see is Dennis Farris, Janice Coffin and Kristi Carrol surrounded by Tangies trying to learn the Watusi. Robin Hood Webber, bringing back Gerry McGrath who has been lost for twenty years, has just collided with the search party headed by the famous Louis and Clark (Kent and Winston, that is) and including Karen Ward, Mary Dugar, Margaret Holstrom, and Gary Desruisseaux. Missionary Roxie Ludeking is waiting for Judy Smith, Susan Rogers, Jean Woundy, and Agnes Hodge to finish making their pineapple-coconut ice-cream. In the square Ray Boucher has just set up his weather station and reports with a confident smile that tomorrow we will have a blizzard. Barbara Lagasse and Susan Evans, here on a head-shrinking expedition, look at him in alarm and head for cover.

As we've always wanted to see France, Wayne switches us to a Paris fashion house run by Beverly Burbank and Donna Collette. Sharon Hellen is designing clothes which are being made by Carol Francoeur and Carol White for Cindy Phillips and Sandy Zigalo to model. Susan Lagassee is providing fashion commentaries, while Grant Watkins is taking photographs. Artists Norman Gauthier and Marilyn Sargent are having a ferocious argument over which end of the canvas is the top. Sandy Myrick is trying to mediate their dispute so that they can begin their masterpiece.

And what's this roar we hear in the street? It's Albie Shaw carrying the Olympic torch to begin the 23rd Olympics. Following him are Frances Sienkiewicz and Lucille Vigneault trying to keep up family tradition as marathon runners. Other U.S. entrants are Brian Winslow, Pete Skovron, Paul Michaud, Ray Taylor and Frank Kinslow. Cheering them on are Ann Vedrani, Micki Baldinelli, Mary Houlihan, and Linda Picard.

Prophecy

Coming back to the U.S. we now find ourselves in Detroit, Michigan. Test car drivers Bobby Bouthroyd, Mark Patterson, Sally Thomson, and Boyd Watkins are trying out a new Packard designed by Cathy Packer and John Picard on tires vulcanized by the Goodrich Co., co-owned by George and Virginia! Out in the pits tuning up their Hondas are Richard Main, Lennie Barlow, and Brian Payne.

Going now to Radio City Music Hall we find, making a guest appearance, the Boston Kenny Popps. In the orchestra we see Joey Duquette on the bass fiddle, Thomas Garrett on the Piano, Sue Lawlor on the tuba, Fred Bickford and Charles Marden on the drums, Donna Pelletier on the clarinet, and Jeff Knapp on the trumpet. Ole King Kenny Cole is leading his chorus of Blackbirds, including Linda Titcomb, Karen Veilleux, Jeanne Emond, Roberta Twombly, Sharon Bryant, Gail Belanger, Myrna Williams and Linda Bodwell. The present Rockettes chorus line includes Linda Nichols, Carol Nichols, Cindy Estabrook, Yvonne Fournier, Andrea Bourdreau, and Janet Hayes.

We drop in on Linda Bertogli who is compiling next week's TV Guide. She tells us that highlights will be: Diane Price on "The Price is Right," Arthur Moore on "I've Got A Secret," Robert Clark on "The New American Band-Stand," and "Zoo Parade" with Rita Lyons. Turning the television we see the following commercials: Dawn Burrell advertising "New Dawn," hair coloring, Wayne Morton with his Old Kentucky recipes; Carol Sanborn and Diane Prime teaming up to promote the combination of Sanborn coffee and Prime, a non-dairy coffee creamer. Charles Spear came on plugging his Arrow gum, and Larry Collins put in a good word for his brother Charles.

On to Hollywood where we find Griff Dalton directing his new movie "Dr. I-Don't-Know," starring Bob Mann and Maureen Doucette. Featured in the cast are Danny Cote and Chuckie Theroux. Rita Belliveau as hair stylist and Bev DeBoisbriand as make-up artist are working on Debbie Juchniewicz, who is beginning her latest movie "The Beachcomber," co-starring Eddie LaBatte.

Turning to Wall Street we find Steve Gould, head of Gould's Motors, in conference with Mary Flanagan of Flanagan's Finance when Lorraine Boucher, spokesman for the secretaries, bursts in to announce that Janet Tremblay, Linda Bergeron, Linda Brown, Paula Pelletier, and Josie Daigle are going to quit to work for Paul Desautels' Taxi Service where they will have half hour breaks every hour. Financial wizard Tommy Gallant is investing another million in Fortin's Fashions. Looking for a tip, Ronnie St. Germain heads for his brokers, Robert Blinn and Richard Morrill.

For a change of scenery we head for a farm, Diane Fields where we see Paul Gauron picking beans, Teddy Syvinski picking potatoes and Grant and Billy Hinton baling hay. Meanwhile back at the ranch, Louise Dube is still riding her horse. Out in the barn Emily Ann Thomas is caring for the horses while veterinarian Ann Parkman is caring for a calf that has the colic.

At the seashore Captain Richard Cook introduces to the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd mates, respectively Billy Connell, Denny Drew, and Jimmy Ziehler and tells us that they are going to sail around the world. Gordon Wills, social director, is trying to save the wealthy men passengers from school teachers Sharon Patterson and Anne Flanders. O dear! Gerry Rousseau has just been thrown overboard by Mary Ryan, but he has been rescued by a raft of shipwrecked people -- Paula Colbath, Diane Connelly, Nancy Guild, Janet Pierce, Patty Wiggin, Barbara Pearson, Joanne Syvinski, and Virginia Titcomb. Capt. Cook has gallantly sent Steve Richardson and Dick Riefke to help them. Lounging around the swimming pool are Carol Ouellet, Barbara Peeke, Susan Reynolds, Leslie Mathieu, Priscilla Merritt and Susan Ryneska. Life guards Dick Poulin and Wayne Brooks are admiring the -- scenery???

Wait a minute -- the machine is starting to smoke!!! Wayne reaches for the telephone and trys to find repairwoman Donna Tibbetts who cannot be found.

I'm afraid I'll have to go. 'Bye for now.

Class Poem — 1965

Soon our high school days will end,
And with them goes a truest friend,
Which through the years has made us strong
That to success we might belong.

And when we look upon the times.
Of joy and pain then left behind,
We oft' will wish they yet are here
Though in our hearts they are so near.

And though we go our separate ways
We never shall forget the days
When warmth of friendship was so nigh
Within the halls of Amesbury High.
